

SWIVEL JOINTS

ERRE.DI swivel joints are used in situations where, due to mechanical stress on the system, a certain rotation degree is necessary.

The pression to which the system is subject could be very high, but this applies only to a low speed rotation.

ERRE.DI swivel joints ensure a completely free passage of the fluid.

Several configurations are possibile, according to the needed rotation degree:

Basic configurations

